

STRUCTURAL TIMBER

ROUND-TABLE DEBATE EVENTS

GUEST RECRUITMENT & EVENT MANAGEMENT

The round-table debate events host thought leaders and influencers from; the offsite sector, government departments, private sector clients, leading architects, engineers and contractors.

Each debate is chaired and facilitated by Darren Richards, Managing Director of Cogent Consulting - leading offsite construction consultants, and shaped by a panel of experts and opinion formers.

The round-table events are attended by Gary Ramsay, Editor of Structural Timber Magazine who will capture and present the debate in a special feature that will appear in the following issue of the magazine and online via the unique Structural Timber Magazine Newsroom.
